

You're invited to the:

BARRY'S CORNER "TREAT AND GREET" EVENT FRIDAY, OCT. 29 FROM 4 TO 7 P.M.

Join your neighbors and meet new friends during a festive, fall-themed Barry's Corner community get-together and open house of area organizations.

Dress in costume for the Halloween theme and go door to door at participating organizations near the crossroads of North Harvard Street and Western Avenue such as the Harvard Allston Educational Portal, the Harvard Achievement Support Initiative, and the Silk Road Project.

3:00 P.M. HARVARD ALLSTON FARMERS' MARKET OPENS

4-6:00 P.M. "TREAT AND GREET" OPEN HOUSES

Start at the Harvard Allston Farmers' Market, corner of North Harvard Street and Western Avenue, to pick up an event guide and map.

Visit participating organizations and learn more about their programs, take part in children's activities, and bring bags for treats!

6-7:00 P.M. COSTUME CONTEST, MUSIC, AND REFRESHMENTS
AT THE ALLSTON FARMERS' MARKET

Children and adults of all ages are invited to participate in a costume parade and contest, listen to festive music, mingle with neighbors, and enjoy refreshments.

Parking available at 219 Western Avenue, Allston. For more information, call 617-495-4955 or e-mail community@harvard.edu.

BARRY'S CORNER "TREAT AND GREET" EVENT

Follow the suggested route for the treat
and greet activities!

1. Harvard Allston Farmers' Market
2. Harvard Allston Education Portal
3. The Silk Road Project
4. Harvard Real Estate Services
5. Harvard Achievement Support Initiative
6. Harvard University Transportation Services- Fleet Management Services
7. Harvard University Recycling and Surplus Center
8. Harvard Ceramics Program
9. Harvard University Transportation Services- Mail Services
10. Stone Hearth Pizza Co. Information Table
11. Boston Transportation Department- Western Avenue Cycle Track Information Table